10 Years Time

Bad Llama

Darling, just you and me
this horizon is as far back as the eyes can see,
If heaven could sing then I would set you free,
Not alone is where I wanna be in 10 years time babe,
In our home is where you'll find I'll reside until I'm in my grave,

She's baring her all, got demons that won't leave her alone,
But she's no tortured soul, she stumbles and asks me if I'm still beautiful?

Taking walks across the river
The reflection captures her soul
She's not twisted and or bitter
Nor the next generation of our home

Your eyes are red, green and blue,
It's an inkling of the pain that you've been going through,
Open to me and I can dress the wounds,
Not alone is where I wanna be in 10 years time babe,
Now we're home, I'll keep you from your demons now forever and a day,

She's baring her all, got demons that won't leave her alone,
But she's no tortured soul, she stumbles and asks me if I'm still beautiful?

Taking walks across the river
The reflection captures her soul
She's not twisted and or bitter
Nor the next generation of our home
So let's build a home

Not alone, it's where I wanna be in 10 years time babe,
Next to you.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/