

Greycedes

Jessica Pratt

Turn the pages of a book, cause I can't even look
At the words there, tell me what they say
I can't even try to read the words sometimes. You go two by two just stepping to the door
Release me now my lonely boy
The soldier's home from war. Everybody tells me
He's the kind of guy, you don't know why he does.
Ooo, stargazer, gaze for awhile
Let me love you, baby. Ohhhhh...(x2)
