

Lost My Better Half (feat. Zakk Wylde)

Black Label Society

Lay to rest, bury the dead
Tomorrow seems to turn so fast
Alone in the boiler meltin' me down
Ain't the first, won't be the last So many people all at once
Who I once was has died
Never feel the ills of breakin' down
Calloused and petrified Slipped inside a hole
Don't know where it's gonna lead
Lost in a world all alone and I'm
Lookin' for me, I gotta get it back Lay waste to a friend
Killin' all the past
Pray that all is forgotten
Lost my better half All that was
All so fucked and trashed
Pray that all is forgotten
Lord, I feel I've lost my better half Wonderin' just how I got here
Shattered to the core?
Lookin' to go back in time
Movin' forward nevermore On the verge of a breakdown
Run down, bludgeoned, and beat
All the things that you once held
I'm begging for your peace Slipped inside a hole
Don't know where it's gonna lead
Lost in a world all alone and I'm
Lookin' for me, I gotta get it back Lay waste to a friend
Killin' all the past
Pray that all is forgotten
I lost my better half, yeah All that was
All so fucked and trashed
Pray that all is forgotten
Lord, I feel I've lost my better half Slipped inside a hole
Don't know where it's gonna lead
Lost in a world all alone and I'm
Lookin' for me, I gotta get it back Lay waste to a friend
I'm killin' all the past
Pray that all is forgotten
Lost my better half All that was
All so fucked and trashed
Pray that all is forgotten

Lord, I've lost my better half
