My New Dawn

Daniel Kirkley

Hiding in the midnight
I've watched life pass me by
Haunted by each heartbreak
And mistake Ive let weigh me down
Now it feels likeThis is my new dawn
My yesterdays have come and gone
Walked in the dark too long
This is my new, this is my new dawnIve washed my hands now
Ive laid down all my doubt
I see that sun rising, baptizing
And shining straight into my soulThis is my new dawn
My yesterdays have come and gone
Walked in the dark too long
This is my new, this is my new dawnJust like a child
Suddenly every things new
The colors collide
And I see a beautiful view
Now I feel aliveThis is my new dawn
My yesterdays have come and gone
Walked in the dark too long
This is my new, this is my new dawnThis is my new dawn
My yesterdays have come and gone
Walked in the dark too long
This is my new, this is my new dawn
