No Respect

Skrape

Fuck, stupid, one, two, three
Four, five, six, seven, eight, goEveryone really knows you
Secrets show to the real you
Impress us, still just hide
So extreme is the fakeness
So being me is the worthiness
Speak the words you denyWhat you think I'm so ashamed?
Can't tell that you still know my name
Things ain't never gonna change
No respect I feel the sameSo what's on for the masses?
Hanging close to the classes
All the while you just fry
This new revelation
A classic bending observation
Disrespect in your eyesWhat you think I'm so ashamed?
Can't tell that you still know my name
Things ain't never gonna change
No respect I feel the sameSo it's true, I can feel its worth
I said what do you live for?
I was into it before
I scream no respect
I'm not going to take it anymoreWhat you think I'm so ashamed?
Can't tell that you still know my name
Things ain't never gonna change
No respect I feel the sameNo respect, no respect, no respect
I get no respect
