Skeleton Key

Citizen King

Tight shoes, stepping light bending over to go under
Find your seat on the kitchen floor
At first glance 20/20, take your chance, maybe not
With a spruce goose on patrolFrom the shackle to the snap, pop, crackle on the out
On the inside space to fill
Silly rabbit, just don't have it, playing tricks for the fix
And the green tea over the hillCuriosity's getting over like a fat cat in the hole
Coming five days late with a secret hand shake
And the dog's reaching for the boneA sweet tooth in a candy land
Or the worst case scenario
Who needs a skeleton key?Superpower on the hunt, take your box Brady Bunch
Check the cap, see, if you're a winner
'Cause it's a parachute drop coming down when it's over
To the same old Swanson dinnerI'm coming in through the back 'cause I never had the knack
With that hole in my back pocket
Silver dragon, golden road but that fortune cookie never told
It never told you nothingCuriosity's getting over like a fat cat in the hole
Coming five days late with a secret hand shake
And the dog's reaching for the boneA sweet tooth in a candy land
Or the worst case scenario
Who needs a skeleton key?Who needs a skeleton key, skeleton key?
Who needs a skeleton key?Curiosity's getting over like a fat cat in the hole
Coming five days late with a secret hand shake
And the dog's reaching for the boneA sweet tooth in a candy land
Or the worst case scenario
Who needs a skeleton key?Who needs a skeleton key?
Who needs a skeleton key, skeleton key?
Who needs a skeleton key?
Who needs a skeleton key, skeleton key?
