

Hallelujah

Gin Wigmore

Take your last step towards heaven and its glow,
Take your last breath of sunlight don't let it go,
Take you last look to remember now so that you know,
I won't let you fade from no minds,
I won't let you fade from no minds, hey hey now,
I won't let you fade from no minds,

And Hallelujah for these eyes to see your painted life,
Hallelujah for the touch of skin to skin with mine,
Hallelujah for this mind that keeps our souls combined,
Hallelujah for this life that let me be your child,
Have your mind have your strength to stay alive,
And keep your eyes open with mine, now, oh no

You followed the road for the angels and left me behind,
A face without words can last a lifetime it's never the same,
So don't say goodbyes they last forever now
Hold on just for a while for I'll be by to see you someday soon now,
Please hold on tonight, oh, cause I'm holding, I'm holding up

And Hallelujah for these eyes to see your painted life,
Hallelujah for the touch of skin to skin with mine,
Hallelujah for this mind that keeps our souls combined,
Hallelujah for this life that let me be your child

Hallelujah, Hallelujah
To be a part of your life to inside of all your smiles,
You're a traffic light of fire,
You're a man who I believe will never die.
