

Handsome Hands

Ingrid Michaelson

I think I'm the only one who really knows
But the emptiness inside of you will show us
We are only tiny babies living right here
Go the way of someone else by gone
Cave, can you feel me cry?
And now to end
I saw what can
I see you
And the lights still go where we are going
When the fallout comes we knew we shall must go
Please just give to me your handsome hands
And I really won't care where my daddy lives
Cave, can you feel me cry?
And now to end
I saw what can
I see you
Can you, can you feel me cry?
And now to end
I saw what I can
I see you
