She Was Stolen

The Twilight Singers

In the embers, I'll die slowly
Undercover, lock and key
In the bedroom you'll be lying
Still as night here, under siegeShe was stolen and I'm the unturned stone Deep is the hole in the sky, oh, myAs you look up at her face and Expectations swallow me
You'll be like you, you will suffer
I'm gonna get you back, wait and seeSeeking stones, and I know where they go
Deep in a hole in the sky
