

WHAT COMES AROUND

Sprouting Ak

I hate you. I hate you - shut upYou think that I'm the one to blame
Everything I lose is just a piece of what there is
To gain
You think it's cool and all is fine
Now is the day when you pay, this is my time
I feel for you nothing but pain
I am what you will be, you are dying in me
I love you, I hate you, I miss youYou're always thinking you're so perfect
Those thoughts drove me away from home
But if you put me through your tests
Then I will fadeI have nothing to say
But I feel like my mouth is wide open
Everything that is real
Comes around
Comes aroundShut upYour stupid face just makes me sick
I see you changing every day
To fit into the newest clique
I know you, but everything you do
Is just a part of you, you'll never see the truth
I hate the way you make me feel
I hate the way you think you're real
Your one voice it destroys my one choiceYou're always thinking you're so perfect
Those thoughts drove me away from home
But if you put me through your tests
Then I will fadeI have nothing to say
But I feel like my mouth is wide open
Everything that is real
Comes around
Comes aroundTu vida es mia
Your fear is living here in meEs que no entiendo come en la vida puedes acer
La paz entre nosotros cuando no vas a decir
Y la gratitud que tu nunca vas a ver
Has now turned to hateI have nothing to say
But I feel like my mouth is wide open
Everything that is real
Comes around
Comes aroundShut up
