For You

Duncan Sheik

For you I wanna sing the happier song
For you I wanna try to right all my wrongs
For you I'm gonna break my bad habits
There's a golden ring and I want you to have it
There's a golden ring and I want youFor you I'm gonna sit and patiently wait
It's great if you're early but if its fine if you're late
For you I feel love and I just wanna show it
You're a beautiful girl and want you to know it
You're a beautiful girl and want you to know it
You're a beautiful girl and want you to know it
It's an infinite world and I want youOnce again I am opened
Once again I am openedFor you I'm waiting on the ticket line
I gotta get back I don't wanna waste time
But the people are tired and the line is so long
So all I can do is sing this song
