

Jungle Jenny

Omni

See Jungle, Jungle, Jungle, Jenny
See Jungle, Jungle, Jungle, Jenny And you're sweet to a shoulder
And you're sweet to a shoulder See Jungle, Jungle, Jungle, Jenny
See Jungle, Jungle, Jungle, Jenny The love has taken me by her side
And she, she won't tell me a lie
Yet people say, I wouldn't say I'm Although I want a sweet embrace. oh
Or would you rather be mine, lay down?
And you're sweet to a shoulder
And you're sweet to a shoulder
And they just keep getting older
And they play every night
And you skip every night
And you skip every night
And you skip every night
And you skip every night See Jungle, Jungle, Jungle, Jenny
See Jungle, Jungle, Jungle, Jenny It don't mean much to me, but it's right
'Cause lady luck, she's got you down for every night
Let's take a break, take me upstate, oh
Although I may have upstaged her, oh
Break a mirror, break a mirror, break a mirror, just break, oh
And you're sweet to a shoulder
And you're sweet to a shoulder
And they just keep getting older
And they play every night
And you skip every night
And you skip every night
And you skip every night
And you skip every night
See Jungle, Jungle, Jungle, Jenny
See Jungle, Jungle, Jungle, Jenny
