

If Tears Could Talk

Alan Jackson

I watched you hide the pain too many times Much too often you don't say what's in your heart
But you don't have to say it's over
I can see it in your eyes
Cause if tears could talk,
You just said goodbye Without a word you took our picture from the wall
And your dresses from the closet down the hall
When I tried to talk it over you just turned away and cried But if tears could talk you just said goodbye And if mirrors spoke they'd tell me I'm a fool For never loving you the way I wanted to
And if silence says it all
I guess it means our love has died
And if tears could talk, you just said goodbye And if mirrors spoke they'd tell me I'm a fool
For never loving you the way I wanted to
And if silence says it all
I guess it means our love has died
And if tears could talk, you just said goodbye
