

Oklahoma Sky

Miranda Lambert

How long has it taken me to find you?
500 years,
500,000 miles;
It don't matter now,
love's always on time;
Meet me underneath the Oklahoma sky;
Lightning flashed,
Everything went silent;
A feather could have knocked me to the floor,
Missing piece was found,

I was finally alive;
Meet me underneath the Oklahoma sky;
With the speed of sound,
I'm homeward bound;
All our sorrows swept away forever,
each and every tear washed out to sea;
There aint no goodbye
with your hand in mine;
Meet me underneath the Oklahoma sky;
Oklahoma sky.
