

All These Lives

Daughtry

Doesn't come down when she calls
"It's time for breakfast."
Mama can't get down those halls
Fast enough to see
Glass is sprayed across the floor
From the broken window
She can't breathe anymore
Can't deny what we know

They're gonna find you, just believe
You're not a person; you're a disease

[Chorus]

All these lives that you've been taking
Deep inside, my heart is breaking
Broken homes from separation
Don't you know it's violation?
It's so wrong, but you'll see
Never gonna let you take my world from me
The world outside these walls may know you're breathing
But you ain't comin' in

(But you ain't comin' in)

Posters hung on building walls
Of missing faces
Months go by without the calls
The clues, or traces

They're gonna find you, just believe
You're not a person; you're a disease

[Chorus]

Shed the light on all the ones who never thought they would become A father, mother, asking why this world can be so cold

Doesn't come down when she calls
"It's time for breakfast."
The memories begin to fall

She asks, "When will I be free?"

[Chorus]

All these lives that you've been taking

    Deep inside, my heart is breaking

All these lives that you've been taking

    Deep inside, my heart is breaking

All these lives that you've been taking

    Deep inside, my heart is breaking

The world outside these walls may know you're breathing

The world outside these walls may know you're breathing

    But you ain't comin' in

---

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com

written by DAUGHTRY, CHRISTOPHER A. / SCHERR, MITCHELL ALLAN

Lyrics © Universal Music Publishing Group, Kobalt Music Publishing Ltd.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>