hiccup

Sarandon

Why every time I try to tell you how I feel
It's like a hiccup-cup comes up and it won't come, come
As soon as I think I'm about to share my lovin'
That's when the hiccups come in
Why every time I try to tell you how I feel
It's like a hiccup-cup comes up and it won't come, come
As soon as I think I'm about to share my lovin'
That's when the hiccups come in
Like a cough on a rainy day, you know the kind
That gives you chest pains, yeah
As soon as things start to reciprocate
Then he comes and brings away
Hold me hard then you squeeze me tight
You let me go then you pick a fight
You make me wanna scream, cry and shout out loud
Boy you got me spinnin' round and round
Why every time I try to tell you how I feel
It's like a hiccup-cup comes up and it won't come, come
As soon as I think I'm about to share my lovin'
That's when the hiccups come in
Why every time I try to tell you how I feel
It's like a hiccup-cup comes up and it won't come, come
As soon as I think I'm about to share my lovin'
That's when the hiccups come in
My thumbs they kind of shaky
(Kind of shaky)
Every time I get around you sweet baby
Some times I don't know what I'm trying to say
Just tell me baby tell me things are gonna be okay
Why every time I try to tell you how I feel
It's like a hiccup-cup comes up and it won't come, come
As soon as I think I'm about to share my lovin'
That's when the hiccups come in
Why every time I try to tell you how I feel
It's like a hiccup-cup comes up and it won't come, come
As soon as I think I'm about to share my lovin'
That's when the hiccups come in
And I, I get all choked up inside
(Inside)

And I don't know what to say
(Don't know what to do say)
Sometimes I just wanna run and hide
But you just stand in my way
Why every time I try to tell you how I feel
It's like a hiccup-cup comes up and it won't come, come
As soon as I think I'm about to share my lovin'
That's when the hiccups come in
Why every time I try to tell you how I feel
It's like a hiccup-cup comes up and it won't come, come
As soon as I think I'm about to share my lovin'
That's when the hiccups come in
Why every time I'm tell you how I feel
It's like a hiccup-cup comes up you know the deal
Pink don't think before she speak
But you got me feeling, feeling kind of weak
Why every time I'm tell you how I feel
It's like a hiccup-cup comes up you know the deal
Pink don't think before she speak
But you got me feeling, feeling kind of weak
Why every time I try to tell you how I feel
It's like a hiccup-cup comes up and it won't come, come
As soon as I think I'm about to share my lovin'
That's when the hiccups come in
Why every time I try to tell you how I feel
It's like a hiccup-cup comes up and it won't come, come
As soon as I think I'm about to share my lovin'
That's when the hiccups come in
Why every time I try to tell you how I feel
It's like a hiccup-cup comes up and it won't come, come
As soon as I think I'm about to share my lovin'
That's when the hiccups come in
Why every time I try to tell you how I feel
It's like a hiccup-cup comes up and it won't come, come
As soon as I think I'm about to share my lovin'
That's when the hiccups come in
