

Aggravated Prolapse of the Spirit

Aversion to Life

Beckoning inward begin to satiate Prolapsing Spirit dwells to emaciate
Aggravation consumes its ineptness Your disgorged soul, the venomous perfection
Why can't you feel what's inside of you Violent ingurgitation fills your brain
Soul releases hope and faith, Xanadu Spirit now embodies the truth

Beaten to “ unconsciousness -crying, begging, in my grasp of “.
Pure hatred “ it intensifies “ burning, ambivalent, to your demise.
Bleeding through “ fucking pulverized “ eradicating all hopes of Painless death “ catastrophe “ nauseating, horrific, screaming

Soul now hollow spreading forth carnality

Licentiously, ripping at your spirit bound to me
Only faith left, is Knowing impending destiny

Insipid doubt of what your soul means, to my hunger pains
Vehemently, opposing me
Struggle, no avail sacrificial slaughter of what lives inside
Clouded mind
Cannot purify, rotting, inside out
Corrupt yourself, I just exploit
Minds of the weak, patheticness a curse of being

No more weakness inside your bleeding heart, no more dependence on light growing now apart
Cannot control the purified sensation, cannot stop yourself from spreading my disease
Create another blasphemy through torture, New power found demon bound you cannot stop
Released on this earth new soul rebirth, let the power flow from your divine hatred
