

Tennis Elbow

Sky Sailing

Cell phones and travel stations
Ringtones and new relations
Say hello to all your friends for me
Several calls I made to Thailand
Wound up in Prince Edward Island
And my head feels like it's ready to blow I served and scratched a rainbow
So curved, I felt the pain go
Through my joints and now I don't wanna play
Swinging down, I sent the birdie
Downtown at 7:30
And I'm convinced that I've got tennis elbow We are lost in the sound
Close your eyes and I will twirl you around
We are lost in the sound
Close your eyes and I will twirl you around
We are lost in the sound
Close your eyes and I will twirl you around We are lost in the sound
Close your eyes and I will twirl you around
We are lost in the sound
Close your eyes and I will twirl you around
