

Line of Fire

Jennifer Leonhardt

i dont want to be there when the lightening hits i dont want to be the way you get your daily fix i will not throw down for this funeral pyre standing around while the flames rise higher oh and i i will not be standing in in your line of fire i dont want be there just to watch you fall i dont wanna wait for you till after last call and i will not go down on your ship of fools play the game while you change all the rules

 i will not be standing in your line of fire your line of fire
