Pretty Little Gangster

Ryder

VERSE 1:
Champagne in this fading light
We are standing on the balcony and dancing in the pouring rain
Please don't feed me black and white
Sick and tired of the typical I wanna know your shade of grey
Hollywood the land of stars
Shattered dreams will break your heart
Draped in jewels to look the part
It's my anthem (x2)
Crystal glasses
Chandeliers
Cameras flash at big premiers
Welcome to the new frontier
Can we get some (x2)CHORUS:
Maybe someday we'll both look back on this ride
Top of the world we're finally living the life
Takin' it in cuz lightning never strikes twice
Pour me a drink looks like we finally arrived
Spotlight coming down like a hammer
Hot sweat getting high off the danger
Can't quit cuz it's not in my nature
Feet will never touch the ground
Pretty little gangster now
The good life will always remind me
The real world can be so confining
But power can also be blinding
Feet will never touch the ground
Pretty little gangster nowVERSE 2:
Silver tongue don't fail me now
Used to look in open windows just to find a way to steal the crown
Pretty gangsters climbing out
Up the ladder pitter patter take a look at all the gold we found
Hollywood the land of dreams
Nothings ever what it seems
Holy water make me clean
Can we get some (x2)
Crystal glasses
Chandeliers
Cameras flash at big premiers

Welcome to the new frontier
It's my anthem (x2)[CHORUS] (x2)
