

Out the Door

Ben Kweller

Youll never believe this.
It happened today baby, my final revelation
I was sittin there, he said, yall dont care,
Youre the reason for this broken nation
Broken dreams dont dieHere I go out the door
I dont need no more
Here I stand, I got your hand
Theres no need to know which way to goIts her versus him
Its us against them
You sink or swim or youre swallowedYou bleed til yer bled
You feed til yer fed
You lead or ye led to be followed
All you can do is tryHere I go out the door
I dont need no more
Here I stand, I got your hand
Theres no need to knowWhich way to go, honey
I dont mind, I dont mind
Which way to go, honey
I dont mind, I dont mind
I really dont mind.Here I go out the door
I dont need no more
Here I stand, I got your hand
Theres no need to know
Which way to go out the door
I dont need no more
Here I stand, I got your hand
Theres no need to know
Theres no need to know
