

Su Lado de Cama

Joan Soriano

I got a million kisses
And a sleeping hurricane.
Saved for the time you come back to stay with me again.
Come back
I'm counting the hours
I can not live so alone
and neither can you.
Oh love!
That kiss you gave me
That little mark you left on me will never go away.
Until you come back, I've got all afternoon and all morning.
I've got all night and 'til dawn.
I have her side of the bed saved.sorry, am still working on finding words in spanish..
enjoy the bachata dance even more..
namaste
peace
