

The Tourist

Gerry Rafferty

Yes, its back on the road again
I just got me some new found friends
And its alright, yeah, its alright Flew away at the speed of sound
I threw up when we touched down
But Im alright, Ill be alright New Yorks bakin in the sun
Got the news it just made number one
Here we go for one more memory
Way back here in the twentieth century That night in Amsterdam
You saw me for what I am
And you found out
Yeah, you found me out And I knew what I saw in you
And I still cant believe its true
But Ill find out, Im gonna find out Meanwhile back down on Fifth Avenue
Raphael just bought some brand new shoes
Me, Im wiped out, Im dead on my feet
Come a long long way from Baker Street Im watchin a night come down
And were headin for one more town
But its alright, yeah its alright Who cares what the night might bring Cause were ready for anything
So its alright, yeah, its alright Heading out across the U.S.A.
Californias still a long long way
Here we go for one more memory
Way back here in the twentieth century
