Born To Love U (feat. Jussie Smollett)

Empire Cast

Here we go again, Here we go again, fire and emotion.
All up in your face, 'bout to walk away both our hearts are broken but the moment your gone all my colors fade,
The bullets and bumps start to ricochet, Ooh I am defenseless, you need me blown away
I was born to looooove you,
and nobody else will do,
I would rather die than live without you,
and everybody know it too,
Don't know why we go to war,
But the one thing thats for sure,
I was born to looooove you,
I know i'm born to love you
born to love you
born to love you
i was boorn to loove you
born to love you
born to love you
born to love you
boorn to loove you I dont want to fight, not another time I just wanna feel you, you aint got to try, you aint got to change I just want the real you, cuz the moment your gone all my colors fade,
the bullets the bumps start to ricochet, Ooh, I am defenseless you need me blown away, Hehey,
i was born to looooove you,
and nobody else will do,
I would rather die than live without you,
and everybody know it to,
dont know why we go to war,
but the one thing thats for sure,
I was born to looooove you,
I know i'm born to love you
born to love you
born to love you

knooooooooow,

Born to looove yooou,
I was born to looooove you,
and nobody else will do,
and everybody know it too
