BEDlight for blueEYES

she's got that look in her eye
"that's ok, everything's alright", a lie she dreams of absolution from a life that's nailed her heart to the floor she don't want this again she cries in the night
she don't want this
she's got that look in her eye
she's got that look in her eye choking down the horror of her life she's got that look in her eye
she's got that look in her eye
She don't want this, no
She don't want this
she don't want this, no
lookin up striaght up to the sun she'll tell you she'll be the one she'll be everything you need tonight no no no, she's got that look in her she's got that look her eye Giving up in the middle of the night i will run to your side giving up in the middle of night i will run to you
