Stone By Stone

BlackHawk

Stone by stone, beam by beam
Hand in hand, we built this dream
Now you're wreckin' this home
Doin' it stone by stoneBrick by brick, tear by tear
The love we made has slowly disappeared
It's as good as gone
You're takin' it stone by stoneWhy can't you up and just walk away
Do you have to drag it out day after day
I'm tired of tryin', I'm giving up
'Cause you tear it down faster than I can fix it upRoom by room, wall by wall
Pretty soon its gonna fall
On your own
You're doin' it stone by stoneWhy can't you up and just walk away
Do you have to drag it out day after day
I'm tired of tryin', I'm giving up
'Cause you tear it down faster than I can fix it upStone by stone, beam by beam
Hand in hand, we built this dream
Now you're wreckin' this home
Doing it stone by stoneStone by stone by stone by stone
Stone by stone by stone by stone
On your own, you're doin' it stone by stone
