

Hey (feat. Amymarie Gaertner)

Chase Johanson

Pickin' up the pieces and movin' on, I spot a pretty lady that inspires a song and its true, this songs about you.(Amy Marie Gaertner):I saw you lookin' at me with your guitar, I shared with you a smile from afar, and it's true, if only you knewThere are things in life that you don't pass by,
Like when this pretty girl just caught my eye,(Amy Marie):And he caught mine tooSo as I called out loud so you'd say hey,

I know that you saw me walking your wayI know that you don't know me but just listen to what I say, this is one of those things I just can't let slip away, so will you please just let me do this one thing for you girl, and I promise I can be the center of your world(Amy Marie):Something 'bout the way you sing to me, every song you sing sweeps me off my feetI listen to your voice and it makes me weak, every single note makes my heart beat, yes it doesAnd there are things in life that you don't pass by

Like when this pretty girl just caught my eyeOh he caught mine tooSo as I called out loud so you'd say hey,
I know that you saw me walking your wayI know that you don't know me but just listen to what I say, this is one of those things I just can't let slip away, so will you please just let me do this one thing for you girl, and I promise I can be the center of your worldoooooooooooo
