crayons

Bourvil

Hey hey, oh
Donna, what's going on?
One, two, three
We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
Take a big eraser and wipe out the line
Oh, oh, what's up, tell me what's a happening?
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?
We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
I'll color your world if you color mine
Oh, oh, what's up, tell me what's a happening?
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?
Come on over you sleepy head
It's time to color my dress in red
It don't matter if it's day or night
We play in color not in black in white
Come on let's color the world in green
Let's make a difference in the way we dream
We're going to color a smiling face
On the people of the human race
One, two, three
I'll take a walk on the wild side
Don't be afraid you can be mine
In and out, in and out
In and out of the lines
Take a walk on the wild side
Don't be afraid you could be mine
In and out of the lines, in and out
In and out of the lines
We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
Take a big eraser and wipe out the line
Oh, oh, what's up, tell me what's a happening?
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?
We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
I'll color your world if you color mine
Oh, oh, what's up, tell me what's a happening?
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?
(Everybody dreaming)

If we mix in some pink and blue

We get a beating at a purple hue
Mellow yellow when the day is done
Becomes the orange of the setting sun
One, two, three, come on
I'll take a walk on the wild side
Don't be afraid you can be mine
In and out, in and out
In and out of the lines
Take a walk on the wild side
Don't be afraid you could be mine
In and out of the lines, in and out
In and out of the lines
We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
Take a big eraser and wipe out the line
Oh, oh, what's up, tell me what's a happening?
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?
We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
I'll color your world if you color mine
Oh, oh, what's up, tell me what's a happening?
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?
Red is the color of the blood in our veins, oh
Like the rainbow we are one the same
(Just one, yeah)
(Everybody dreaming)
Yellow is the color of the sun we share
The green grass is everywhere
(Everybody dreaming)
We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
Take a big eraser and wipe out the line
Oh, oh, what's up, tell me what's a happening?
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?
We're like crayons melting in the sunshine
I'll color your world if you color mine
Oh, oh, what's up, tell me what's a happening?
Say you want love but why ain't you sacrificing?
