He Is Legend

If there's something you must say
Let it out
You know we die each time
We open up our mouths
If there's something you must do
Here's your chance to see it through
Don't let me down Are you a monster
Are you, man
Is that a mask
Or just your skin
Who could tell
You wear it well
We all can tell
There's nothing new
All lies are true
Relapsed in reverie Am I dreaming
Am I awake
Is this choice
Or is this fate
Well who could tell
We wear it well
We all can tell There's nothing new
All lies are true
Relapsed in reverie
Never been quite who I say
Better off drifting away
We all can tell
You wear it well
We all can tell
You wear it well
