Yearn For Change

Paradise Lost

Approaching a silence
A blur of subsidenceTime may heal all troubles is that what I've found?
Joy entices all, until death's lonely shroud
But I know it's foreverPraying for a change
Praying for a change
Our lives leading onwards
The essence is strongerMemories of life drifting further away
I must doubt that where there's a will, there's a way
But I know it's foreverPraying for a change
Praying for a changeLife is all the pain we endeavor
Life is all the pain we endeavor
Life is all the pain we endeavor
Life is all the pain we endeavor
Life is all the pain we endeavorPraying for a change
Praying for a change, change, changePraying for a change
Praying for a change
