Time Will Save The Day

Ben Kweller

I don?t care where I sleep tonight
I don?t care if I?ll be alright
A problem?s a wave
You gotta ride to the other side and wave bye-bye-bye
I jumped through the clouds, I rode with the hale
I sat in a field, I walked with the snail
I saw through the eye that made up the storm
It held me in hands that kept me warm-warm-warm
Time will save the day
Time will save the day
Time will save the day
Don?t go away, yeah, yeah, yeah!

I went through the fortress, I slept with the mistress
I read through the bible, it gave me revival
Down in the city, the prison of beauty
The kingdom of waitin? for nothin? to feel like me
I wish you were born just a little bit greener
But I could have sworn you were a believer
That head full of wisdom had nowhere to go
So it just melted away like snow-snow-snow
Time will save the day
Time will save the day
Time will save the day
Don?t go away, yeah, yeah, yeah!
Time will save the day...
