

I'll Give It To You

Zona Jones

I know your heart belongs to me and you're afraid
'Cause I haven't given mine
You think that I don't want you to have it
But I do, I just got hurt real bad one time
Can you wait until I find my heart?
I hid it well back then
It was so broken , I didn't think, I'd need it again
Never dreamed, I'd find someone so true
Can you wait until I find my heart?
If you can, I'll give it to you
It's here somewhere
So lost, so long I can't recall
The place that it would be
I'm sure by now, there's times you ask yourself
How long that you can wait for me?
Can you wait until I find my heart?
I hid it well back then
It was so broken I didn't think, I'd need it again
Never dreamed, I'd find someone so true
Can you wait until I find my heart?
If you can, I'll give it to you
