Now

Days Of The New

I feel alone even with myself
But it does better me
I'd like to tell you, how I'm feeling now
But it ruins everythingYou try to judge me now
Tomorrow's okay
You try to tell me now, how I should feel
I don't feel like I should be hereI feel alone even with myself
Do you know what I mean?
I can't explain those things that seem to repel me
They ruin everythingYour fears are working now
But I don't complain
I'm working hard to listen, that's okay
Don't you know, it's not okay to be afraid of meI hate to tell you but you're in my way
I hate when someone tries to push me away
Don't you know you can't be afraid of me?
Giving away all I'm feeling now, now
Now, now, now, now, now, nowWhy don't you listen to this heart full of pain?
Sounds like complaining, but it's hard to refrain
Don't you know you can't be afraid of me
Giving away all I'm feeling nowNow, now, now
Now, now, now
Now, now, now
