

Unrestrained

CeCe Winans & Pure Worship Performers

Most Holy Lord, You have my attention
You know my thoughts and all my intentions
'Cause I want to honor You in every way And I'll pour my love on You
My whole life belongs to You
And I worship You completely unashamed
I'll give You my heart unrestrained Almighty God, You have my devotion
With all my mind and all my emotion
I want to know You more in every way
I pour my love like oil from this broken heart
I give myself away
I let myself go
You have set me free
I surrender my soul
