Slaydream

Godsend

Deep inside myself I seek for sanctuary
I'm running in my vision and there's no escape
I drag myself through endless voids of lost infinities
I can face the worlds of fearless destiniesLet me rest in your arms oh mother earth
You must save the one that you once gave birth
I see evil entities upon my way
I watch my dreamless nature as my body praySomeone, everyone that can ease my pain
I regret it now when I see what I have slainSomeone, everyone that can ease my pain
I regret it now when I see what I have slain
