Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

No more simple tunes
No more easy poon
It takes so many millions to get laid
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friend
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friend
Yeah, so many fools
It's time to lose the tools
I said, "Give 'em hell boys on the Nile"
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friend
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friend
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friend
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friend
I'm wading through the herds
[Incomprehensible] my dying words
Yeah, time at the mission thanking myself
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friends
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friends
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And goddamn you my friends
Goddamn the circumstance that brought me here
And fare you well my friends
