Good Girl, Bad Girl

Trevor Jackson

i want a bad girl tonight mischievous and clever showed up in my fave tryna capitalize, on our time together acting like she bigger than she is looking seductive wanting me to sweat her playing hard to get knowing damn well she gon get in here and do whatever i tell her and she wanted me to save her life so i had to break it to her it was only right let me clear the air
bad girls get tonight
good girls get forever
one night for sho
lifetime never
no disrespect but this would go better, if i make you understand me
one night for sure
my hearts reserved for somebody better
i hope you understand hope you understand me (bad girls, only for tonight, bad girls, only for tooo) i want a good girl for life the one that they call wifey, yeah put her up in whatever she likes, keep her fly and keep her icy now she a lady in the street and she always keep it trill the kind to hold ya down and support you in what ya do she crazy sexy cool superwoman, she the kind you wanna wake up to every mornin better than all ya past lovers, place no one above ya girl we'll be a team for life she's the one i call my wife, yeah keep it tight the reason whyyy

(good girls, girl you are my life, good girls, girl you are my, you're mine, you're mine..bad girls only for tonight, bad girl only for too!)
now don't get me wrong, simple and plain i love both of y'all but it aint the same when good girls try to play bad girl games and bad girls try to be what they just aint thats when the problem starts, thats when the problem starts use ya head and ya heart you'll figure it out
