Diamonds and pearls don't move this girl

She can be icy cold to the crawl

One of her lungs breathes in another world

While the other sticks around to blow you offEven when the four winds blow

She kinda passes by like she don't feel it

No, momma, she don't feel it

One of these days I'm gonna dive into her waves

And bring back the meaning of it all, ohSofia, I need you

Like a junkie needs a vein

And I wanna feel you, Sofia

Fallin' down on me like rainThey say in ancient times, man, that women ruled the world

But the Goddess was the one who laid it down

Well, I got a woman as alive as the day

Gonna breathe a whisper, knock you right down to the groundSo go ahead, man and say what you came to say

The black widow's a spider, the black widow's a spider

Then go and prepare for your dyin' day

Won't take one minute till you're curled up dead beside her

Oh yeahSofia, I need you

Like a junkie needs a vein

And I wanna feel you, Sofia

Fallin' down on me like rainOn me like rain

Fall down

Fall down

Fall downSofia, I need you

Like a junkie needs a vein

And I wanna feel you, Sofia

Fallin' down on me like rainSofia, I need you

Like a freeloader needs his train

And I wanna feel you, Sofia

Fallin' down on me like rainSofia, rain down on me

And I ain't ever, I'll never be the same, baby

I wanna feel you, Sofia

Fallin' down on me like rain
