Into the Void

Threering

Is this the end you've waited for?
Doesn't it bring you down?
Is this what you wanted for us all along?
We pay the price for all the lies
As if they're going to become real
Maybe another time, another place
With somebody else...When there's nothing left but noise
We're closer to the edge
The tide will drag us down
Into the voidFear the respect you struggle for Someone to hear your voice
The silence can be deafening when it's your only company
The greatest vice, just roll the dice
Heaven and Hell are just a breath apart
Praying for someone to care
To read your mind
But nobody can...When there's nothing left but noise
We're closer to the edge
The tide will drag us down
Into the voidWhen there's nothing left to say
Then there's nothing thrown away
And the rest is left to fade to black
In the voidWhen there's nothing left but noise
We're closer to the edge
The tide will drag us down
Then there's nothing thrown away
And the rest is left to fade to black
In the void
