

Thinkin' Things

Carolyn Dawn Johnson

Thinkin' Things
(CDJ /Tom Shapiro)I'm picturing me in your arms tonight
I'm starting to taste your lips against mine
It's nothin' you're doing
It's something I'm feeling
I've never felt before
You're sitting here talking
While I'm busy dreaming 'bout so much moreYou got me thinkin' things
Imagining
Everything that's possible later
When it's just the two of us
I'm curious
Baby what's waiting behind those eyes
Yeah when you look into mine
You got me thinkin' thingsWhen did my heart change I don't know
This isn't a place I thought that I'd go
I'm thinking that I'm not the only one
Who's walked across that line
The way that you're smiling
Is saying I read what's on your mindRepeat Chorus twice...
