Spit You Out

Skunk Anansie

I am what I am, so I spit you out
Do I cut the ties, or do I hold on tight
Time has come for me to realize
All those things I loved I now despise
But it?s my life, I?m takin' back what?s mine
It?s our time to rise above
It?s my life, I?m takin' back what?s mine
It?s our time!
Your pictures on my wall
With this around me I don?t feel it?s over
I?ve never felt this way before
With you around me I don?t feel it?s over
I am what I am, so I spit you out
Can you justify how I
Time has come for me to realize
All the things I loved I now despise
But it?s my life, I'm taking back what?s mine
It?s our time to rise above
It?s my life, I?m taking back what?s mine
It?s our time
Your pictures on my wall
With this around me I don?t feel it?s over
I?ve never felt this way before
With you around me I don?t feel it?s over now
I know you're faking, you try to get me back
I know you're faking it
Feel it's over
Feel it's over
{Bullet For My Valentine
How we doing everyone?}
But it?s my life, I'm taking back what?s mine
It?s our time to rise above
It?s my life, I?m taking back what?s mine
It?s our time to rise above
