Another Night Out (feat. Mark Lanegan)

UNKLE

Lift the wheels up from the roadway
Close your sparrow's glassy eyes
That walk upon the water
Once more for me
Are those dead diamonds baby
Or are they stars gone to sleepSo low that you might miss me
Ah yeah
Slowly fades the light
So low that you might miss me
Ah yeah
Slowly fades the lightWait for the SpringAnd to this thing
I do surrender
To the darker sin
I climb with a vine
On a graveyard train
Hauling away
Drowning to die
Down four fathom five
Dwell hollow ground
Dark hollow treesWhat from heaven's tongue is heard
Through the veins
Love sustained
Another night outSo low that you might miss me
Slowly fades the lightAnother night outWait for the SpringAnd to this thing
I give myself
On a graveyard train
Pulling away
Down into heaven
Down into heaven
Down into heaven
heaven
Dwell hollow ground
Dark hollow treesDwell hollow ground
Dark hollow trees
