

Wanderer White

Winterpills

At the end of time
theres a friend of mine took me at my word on my private line and the sun was round as a dandelionand you followed me out of grace you followed me out of gracepush you off the wall and you fall and fall then you hold me down then you push me round i heard every sound as your family drowned and you followed me out of grace you followed me out of gracewhooooooooooooooooo-whoohcome on wanderer white! wheres your fiery spite?
now's your time to shine its the afterlife
you seduce all your friends on their wedding nights and you follow me out of grace you follow me out of grace you follow me out of graceooooooooooooooooohh-whooh!!!
