Chaos

Ohgr

assisted paradigm entrusted privately decays behaving all controlled dependent look alike display affection for defection when no refuge all the same dependent never border one world order it away create a way the mind will have to find a way in guarding reason alibisit seems a way defended reasons it seems a way it seems a way alarming visions it seems a waya begging man divine instructed shadow poverty a deeply dirty hiding from too many eaten needs protection with selection cover all not needing anything resentment unrelenting change to self destructive meansit seems a way poor execution it seems a way it seems a way each from a center it seems a wayaddicted horrified abducted outwardly betray removing all below collective consciousness degrades ascension from depression which cover chosen all the same pretend it doesn't matter the world orders it away.ask as if to find traces out of time back chews on itself a turn that says it all.inserting all the tools upon the broken talking dog if fleeing dirty shadows off of drawings on the wall a funded self of science from disorder and decay its chaos makes you crazy and the (realist | real is) left to say
