

Man

Vincent Liou

Love divine, set aside
Well I hope he's worth it
All the riches in the world
I would give for just one last kiss
I wish I knew what to tell you
So you'd stay with me
I will be a better man than I was yesterday
Come on love, light me up
And lay me down
Cause this crown's getting awfully tight
So light me up tonight
Souls entwined, never mind
Well I jest in earnest
All the people in the world
While I wandered and reminisced
