Red Harvest

Rare Silk

This song is called 'Red Harvest'
Destroy, goHow many people can I hate in my mind
With an intention of murder?
Because the people fear me, the people bleeding
Once they're conditioned, it's easy to provoke aggression
This premonition is evilKilling begets more killing
The blood lust begins
Killing begets more killing
The blood lust beginsWhat kind of visions can I build in my mind
To harvest the hearts of the people?
To create the fever you need a reason
Once they're conditioned, it's easy to provoke aggression
This premonition is evilKilling begets more killing
The blood lust begins
Killing begets more killing
The blood lust beginsIt makes me feel alive in my eyes
It makes all the pain subsideJust out after sunset
I take a walk down the streets
You know, try to clear my head
And I feel like I gotta put my fist upon the wall
Feel the cold concrete as it tears apart my controlTake it and feel it, you freak
I feel I'm breaking down now
Take it, feel it, you freak
I feel I'm breaking down nowTake it, feel it, you freak
I feel I'm breaking down now
Take it, feel it, you freak
I feel I'm breaking down nowTake it, feel it, you freak
I feel I'm breaking down
Take it, feel it, you freak
I feel I'mTake it, feel it, you freak
I feel I'm fucking up
Take it, feel it, you freak
I can't get out
