Stupid

Per Gessle

Everything you do you do so right
The clothes you buy are awfully nice
You wear your image bullet-proof
Your stocks are always thru the roofYou make me feel so stupid
Make me feel stupidAnd you grew up, made in the sun
They all loved you from Day 1
You always remembered everyone's name
You always won the guessin' games, ooh yeahYou made me feel stupid
Made me feel stupid
And I'm not gonna take it anymore
Not gonna take it anymoreYou always pick the perfect wine
Your money is sho nuff greener than mine
Your wit pours out when you open your mouth
My hometown is smaller than your houseYou make me feel so stupid
Make me feel stupid
And I'm not gonna take it anymore
Not gonna take it anymore
