Blush

Razed in Black

Alone inside my mind
Across the room I catch your eye ?
Then you wander in my direction
My left you sit beside
So hot you make me want to hide,
Hide from my own fragile tortureI can feel you now
I can taste it now
Overcome that I?m your temptation
I never dreamed it true
I?m crushed with just the thought that I made you blushThe lust inside I cry
Without the tears running down my eyes
On your knees you beg for weakness
Temptation close at hand
Falling for you I didn?t plan
Pleasure seekers taking overI can feel you now
I can taste it now
Overcome that I?m your temptation
I never dreamed it true
I'm crushed with just the thought that I made you blush
