

Blue River

Jack Teagarden

Oh, let me linger by your shore
And let me dream for ever more

Blue river,
Oh blue river.

Although the one I love has flown
And though she left me all alone,
Forgive her,
Blue river.

Just let your rippling waters flow,
But keep on searching as you go “
Blue river --

Please hear my plea,
Find her for me.

Then tell my love that I’ve been true
And say I’m just as blue as you “

Blue river,
Oh blue river.
