Disrespect

Stardown

taking all he owes me nothing he can do with that everything we had is dead all the things you told me you won't get my booty there's nothing you could do with that if you're thinking i'mma take you back well, you don't know me i don't need your golden flower the beauty never looked so weak. i don't want it, i don't need it. your kisses never taste so sour revenge will never taste so sweet take it, feel it, soon you'll miss it.
don't care if i desrespect
it's almost like we never met oh just like we never met oh oh it's time to walk away
you won't see me get upset
just like we never met
oh oh sitting on the couch now sitting with your regrets i don't hear a thing he says and i don't give a damn now i caught him with his pants down nothing i can do with it why you wanna make me beg? you don't understand now i'm taking back all my power

oh, i could get you down, go cry out, die another day. baby baby, you're my sweet baby. how i left you alone, no ones home, you'll remember me, you'll remember me? i'm over you!
oh oh oh
ohhh
